

CAS Territorial Governors Meeting - EOT 2025

February 27, 2025

Berger building, Ben Avery Shooting Facility, Phoenix, AZ

In attendance:

66 CAS Territorial Governors (48 In person, 18 via Zoom)

4 RO Instructors (all in person)

RO Committee Members: Sassy Dancer, Rusty Remington, & Roy's Creek Dan

SASS Advisory Board: CC Moonshine, Santa Fe River Stan & Flat Top Okie

SASS Admin: Misty Moonshine & Ruby Ruthless

Discussion Items:

1. Misty introduced the ROC and announced the departure of Deuce Stevens from the ROC. Deuce was joining via Zoom.
2. Taylors new TC73 Rifle
 - a. It was announced that the Taylors TC73 Rifle in 9mm is legal for use in Cowboy Action Shooting. Firearms with muzzles threaded for accessories (e.g. suppressors) are APPROVED for SASS competition PROVIDED that they come with a SMOOTH (no checkering, knurling, or grooves) thread protector that matches the contours and finish of the barrel.
3. RO Course Materials Update
 - a. Misty provided an update to the status of the new RO Course training materials and asked for volunteers for a small review committee for a review of the materials. Launch date goal is April 1.
4. Transgenders competing in Ladies categories
 - a. A TG asked if SASS had any intention in following the current administration in banning transgender/biological males from competing in women's categories.
Considerable discussion followed.
SASS will continue to follow our current rules for confirming/identifying gender for a ladies category by referencing the individuals government issued ID.
Further legal counsel will be sought on the matter to assist in determining the best way forward.
5. Black Powder Standard Conversation
 - a. A TG asked about the status of establishing a BP standard as a follow up to previous discussions.
Damascus John stated that he was working on it but had hit a wall. Additional conversation about the topic was had, Snakebite offered to send SASS all previous data on the subject. Now that BP is back to being more readily available, this venture may be moot now.

No additional topics presented. Meeting adjourned.
